Clarification for eligibility funding

As detailed in the Childcare Act 2006, childminders are not able to claim funding for their own children, grandchildren or for any member of their family through blood or marriage. This will be actively monitored by Hertfordshire County Council and if there is enough evidence to confirm that funding has been claimed contrary to these regulations, it will be refused and reclaimed if necessary.

The free early education entitlements stop at the beginning of the term your child starts in reception class (or reaches compulsory school age, if later i.e. the start of the school term following the 5th birthday).

Section A – Family information

Your child is entitled to 570 hours free early education per year across the 38 weeks of school term time. This can be accessed through any approved childcare provider in Hertfordshire. The free early education hours can be split between two providers, where both agree, and that the number of hours accessed does not exceed the total allowed in that funding period. Some children can access an additional 570 hours of free childcare (known as 30 hours free childcare); eligibility criteria apply. If you are eligible the total of 1140 hours may be split over a maximum of three providers on a maximum of two sites per day.

NB: All free early education in a single day has to be offered in one continuous session, there cannot be a 'paid for' break between sessions in the same day.

Using your free childcare hours in the school holidays

Choosing to use your free childcare hours in the school holidays as well as during term time is referred to as the stretched offer. Not all providers offer this, but if they do and you feel it is a more suitable option for your circumstances then you need to consider the following points:

- Whilst you still get 570 hours per scheme in total across the year, the maximum number of weekly hours available to you is reduced as you are accessing the entitlement over more than the standard 38 weeks. Typically, this will be around 11 or 12 hours per week, but your provider will confirm the exact figures to you.
- A stretched offer model must be applied for a full year to ensure that you can access the full number of hours you are entitled to.

Section C – splitting your free early education

Please note, all free early education providers must agree on the hours claimed.

Does your child attend another childminder/day nursery/pre-school/school nursery for their free early education? Yes No

If yes, name?

30 hours free childcare declaration

If your child is splitting their 30 hours free childcare entitlement across two or more providers please nominate the main provider where the local authority should pay the first 15 hours to.

Disability Access Fund declaration

If your child is eligible for the Disability Access Fund (DAF) and is splitting their free entitlement across two or more providers please nominate the main provider where the local authority should pay the DAF to (if your child changes provider in the year the funding will remain with the provider you have selected below).

Parent/carer declaration

I confirm that my child is attending the early years provider(s) for the free hours detailed above.

I understand how the free early education hours will be delivered for my child. If my child is receiving a stretched offer and reverts to the term time offer, the number of free hours available each week may be affected.

I will make every effort to ensure my child attends the free hours claimed for. I am aware that to continue receiving 30 hours free childcare, that I need to recheck my voucher code every 3 months as a minimum (by the end of each funding period to ensure it remains valid for the following period).
